SHEFFIELD

We are pained to report the death of one of our aged and most respected citizens, namely, that of Mrs. Lydia A. Paige, who passed away on April 15th. She had been ill since the first of January but was confined to her bed for about a week only. Mrs. Paige has been living during recent years with her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Snelling, where her death occurred. Mrs. Paige was the daughter of the late Samuel and Lucy Day of Glover. She was born in Glover on Dec. 1st, 1830, where she attended school and spent most of her life until her marriage with J. D. Paige, which took place on Nov. 29, 1853. Soon after her marriage she and her husband settled on Sheffield square where her husband died twelve years ago, and she remained until her death. She was the mother of seven children, four of whom are living, namely, Harley E. Paige of Barton, Mrs. Lou Carter of Danville, Mrs. G. A. Carter of Hardwick and Mrs. Ethel Snelling of Sheffield. She leaves, also six grandchildren. She was for many years a member of the Methodist church of this place and during her husband's life a class-meeting was maintained at their house, her husband being a most efficient class leader, for a goodly number of years. She was a kind mother, an affectionate wife, an obliging neighbor and will be greatly missed by the many friends who mourn her loss. The obsequies were held from the house Tuesday of last week and the interment was at the cemetery at Glover, Rev. C. M. Redstone was the officiating clergyman.

How to Clean Willow Plumes.

To clean willow plumes place them in a long pan and partly cover with gasoline. Do not attempt to shake the feather in the liquid, but place in the pan and roll and rock gently back and forth, driving the gasoline from one end of the pan to the other. Lift the feather gently out and place on a clean cloth to dry. When dry shake in the sun, and then, when certain all the gasoline has evaporated, shake it slowly over a register to fluff the tiny fronds. Willow plumes are all hand made and not easy to clean, and if the plume is an expensive one it would perhaps be better to send it to a reliable cleaner, but for the cheaper or half worn ones the home cleaning will probably be quite as successful if care is taken.

The Worst Drink.

"But chi-chi, the chi-chi of Patagonia. That is the worst drink in the world," said a naval man. "The Patagonians gather wild apples. They dip pits and line them with horsehides and in those pits they leave the apples to rot and ferment. When the pits are full of foamy, hissing juices the Patagonian warriors gather for their annual jag, and the women and children go off and hide in the woods. No wonder, for chi-chi is a terrible drink. It is a thick gray foam that hisses. It seems to be alive. It is like drinking snakes."—New York Press.

A Cure "For" All.

Not a Patent Cureall, Nor a Modern Miracle, but Simply a Rational Cure for Constipation.

It is hard to tell just why Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets have become so popular with most people, but considering the short time they have been advertised, the demand for them has been cause for wonder. They are no different in appearance from other laxative tablets, but they really must possess unusual merits, for from our own personal observation we know that they are ways to just what is expected of them. Their action upon the skin and complexion is remarkable, for the principal ingredient in them is extract of dandelion and your own doctor will tell you that dandelion is one of the greatest skin alteratives known to the profession.

If your bowels are inactive, your skin shallow, your tongue coated and if you are troubled with pimples or bilious spells, a 25 cent box of Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets will clear up your complexion, tone up the liver, encourage the action of your bowels and make you feel well again or The E. W. Barron Company, Barton and Kinney's Pharmacy, Orleans will gladly pay you back your money.
